Sunday Feb 10 – Wine and Chocolate Class

Sunday Feb 24 – Winter Reds and Braised Meats

Winter, Hiver, Inverno, Hivern, or a keenly penetrating brisk boreal bleakness, however you say it, however you endure it, however you celebrate it, braising the flesh of a fresh kill has long been an integral part of manufacturing a little extra comfort for the White Walkers in our midst.

Low and slow. That is your mantra.

A bottle of red wine, roasted onions, leeks, mushrooms, carrots, celery, and bouquet garni, all lending a hand here in the alchemy of the low and slow transmutation from meat that is ordinarily chewy and impenetrably tough into mouth-watering morsels of comforting sustenance. Think short ribs, pot roast, osso buco...Noms.

Clearly we love a good braise... and maybe a bottle of great red wine or two too.

Please join us for a cooking and wine experience like no other with Chef Esteban Rosas and our Sommelier Alex Agotsch as they take you on an edifying and soul satisfying tour of meaty braises their accompaniments, and their wine pairings.

Along the way we will teach you how to make a world class braise and talk about why we pair the wines we do to each specific dish we present.
